

New Public Leadership Framework

Application of Learning to Context and Practice

This represents the approach in aligning public leadership skills with practice through Realistic Evaluations' focus on contexts-mechanisms-outcomes.

It combines the drivers for change, the development of the skills and behaviours needed as well as its application in practice.